

Form 13 - Second-hand Vehicle Dealers Act 1995

Notice to purchaser

This is the notice to be given to the purchaser who has bought a vehicle at auction if the vehicle has been auctioned on behalf of a person not being a dealer.

Part 1

The vehicle referred to in the Auction Notice on the other side of this form has been sold to:

Name of purchaser:

Address:

Purchase price: $

Date of sale:

Odometer reading at the time of the sale (specify miles or kilometres):

Certificate by dealer

I certify that the vehicle sold to the above purchaser is correctly described in the Auction Notice overleaf and that all statements and particulars entered on both sides of this form are correct.

Signed by the dealer or an employee or agent authorised to sign on behalf of the dealer:

Name of the person signing this certificate (print in block letters):

Part 2

This vehicle was sold by the auctioneer on behalf of someone who is not a dealer. As with any private sale, this means that the duty to repair under the Second-hand Vehicle Dealers Act 1995 does not apply.

You should also note that some other legal rights and remedies which apply to ordinary sales do not apply to sales by auction.

Form 11 - Second-hand Vehicle Dealers Act 1995

Auction notice

Vehicle to be auctioned on behalf of person who is not a dealer

The vehicle

Manufacturer and model:
Year of manufacture:
Year of first registration:
VIN number:
Registration number:
Engine number (if not registered):

Odometer reading when the vehicle was acquired from the last owner who was not a dealer (specify miles or kilometres):

To the best of the owner's knowledge, information and belief, can this odometer reading be regarded as reasonably accurate? ☐ Yes ☐ No If not, why not?

Has the vehicle ever been recorded as wrecked, written off or having suffered significant damage as a result of exposure to water? ☐ Yes ☐ No

The last owner

The name and address of the last owner of this vehicle are available from the auctioneer on request. If the owner of the vehicle carried on a vehicle leasing business and let the vehicle on hire to another person pursuant to a vehicle leasing agreement, the name and address of the person the vehicle was leased to are also available from the auctioneer on request.

Note - Although the auctioneer is required to provide the last owner's name and address on request, an auctioneer who fails to do this may have a defence if they can prove that reasonable inquiries were made and a proper examination of the vehicle conducted. (For example, if the vehicle was purchased at an interstate auction, the auctioneer may not be able to ascertain the last owner's details despite having made reasonable inquiries.)
