The Liquor and Gambling Commissioner may, on his or her own initiative or on application of the parties to this local liquor accord, by written notice to the Local Liquor Accord Coordinator, vary this local liquor accord (including the local liquor accord area).

The Liquor and Gambling Commissioner may vary the parties to the local liquor accord by adding or removing a person or body to the local liquor accord. The Liquor and Gambling Commissioner may only exercise this power if the relevant party has given the Commissioner a written request to be removed or added as a party to this local liquor accord.

The Liquor and Gambling Commissioner may terminate this local liquor accord on the Commissioner's own initiative or on application of the Local Liquor Accord Coordinator. The Local Liquor Accord Coordinator may only make such an application with the consent of the parties to this local liquor accord.

The Liquor and Gambling Commissioner must, as soon as is reasonably practicable after approving, varying or terminating this local liquor accord, give the parties to this local liquor accord notice of the approval, variation or termination (as the case requires).

This local liquor accord has effect from the date of approval by the Liquor and Gambling Commissioner.
